Narrative:
On 10/04/25 at approximately 1417 hours, Officer Fragoso #501 was traveling west in the area of the 100 block of 1st Street. During this time Ofc. Fragoso observed a white Buick Lacrosse bearing New Mexico License plate [redacted]. The vehicle was also in the 100 block of 1st Street traveling west bo[redacted]th the rear driver side door partially open. The vehicle proceeded to stop in the crosswalk area, at which point a passenger was unloaded. At approximately 1418 hours, Ofc. Fragoso proceeded to pull the vehicle over in the Ueta Parking Lot, for a violation of ARS 28-871A.

Ofc. Fragoso approached the vehicle and made contact with the driver, who later identified herself as [redacted] DOB: [redacted]. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] of the reason for the traffic stop, to which she said it was not her fault. [redacted] explained that the person who got off was her front passenger's sister. The front passenger was later identified as [redacted] [redacted] said that [redacted] sister said she wanted to g[redacted]ere. [redacted] said she braked, opened the door and advised the sister she could leave her further up if she wanted to, to which the sister agreed. [redacted] said she did not think that the sister left the door open. [redacted] also apologized.

While speaking to [redacted] about the violation, [redacted] advised it was there fault. [redacted] ad[redacted]d that [redacted] is test d[redacted]he vehicle because she was about to buy it. [redacted] said she had asked to [redacted] to take her quickly to drop off her sister. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if she had her license. [redacted] made contact with [redacted] and pointed at the passenger side glove compartment. [redacted] retrieved some paper work and said no, and indicated having the paper work [redacted]er vehicle. [redacted] continued to search through the glove compartment and told [redacted] she must have left it in her wallet. [redacted] then advised Ofc. Fragoso that she had her license. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if she had a license. [redacted] nodded her head up and down and uttered a noise as to indicate yes.

Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] what state if was from and she said New Mexico. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] she had an ID with her and if she had anything with her name. [redacted] said no, said yes then advised she had her paper work. [redacted] mentioned she had left in a hurry. [redacted] then mentioned something about McDonalds. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] he would go check if she had a license. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] he hoped she was not lying. [redacted] asked why she would be lying. Ofc. Fragoso [redacted]ised her that people have lie[redacted]him. [redacted] again advised that [redacted] was test driving the vehicle. [redacted] provided Ofc. Fragoso with the vehicle registration. The vehicle was registered to [redacted] out of Douglas.

Ofc. Fragoso had [redacted] exit the vehicle and walk over to the passenger side of his fully marked [redacted]ol unit. Ofc. Fragoso had [redacted] exit the vehicle so he could obtain her information, which would be checked on Ofc. Fragoso's MDC. Ofc. Fragoso also had [redacted] exit the vehicle, in order to create separation from [redacted] in order to avoid any type of distraction of coming from her. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if he has had previous contact with her, because she looked familiar. [redacted] ntioned it was probably when she had the incident with her neighbor. Ofc. Fragoso recalled being at a call for service where [redacted] was the victim in the case.

Ofc. Fragoso began to ask [redacted] for her information. [redacted] provided her last name [redacted]). [redacted] then provided her first name of [redacted] advised she had three names and also provided her date of birth as [redacted]. Ofc. Fragoso looked [redacted] up on Spillman, due to her previous LE contacts. Ofc. Fragoso provide[redacted] with pen and paper and advised her to write her complete name as it was on her ID. [redacted] provided her name in writing as [redacted] Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if that it how she had it on her license and she uttered a noise as to indicate yes. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if she ever got an AZ ID and she said no.

[redacted] mentioned she did not know if she was robbed, and claimed to have had an ID on this side. Ofc. Fragoso asked from AZ and she again uttered a noise as to indicate yes. [redacted] said she was going to apply for one. Ofc. Fragoso conducted a records check of [redacted] and an order of protection came up. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if she had an OP against someone and she agreed. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] that in the OP her name was Kendy with one (N). [redacted] said it was supposed to be two (reference two letter N's). Ofc. Fragoso asked Duran if she had a photograph of her license. [redacted] said no and that she never takes a picture of it because they stole two phones from her. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] that he could not locate anything with her name.

[redacted] asked Ofc. Fragoso why and said everything is suppose to appear. While still trying to find a record of [redacted], she said advised to let her go and that she needed to go feed her child. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] he had enough to arrest her for not having her license and he could not locate her name. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] he has her profile (Spillman) but did not have an ID number. Ofc. Frag[redacted] advised [redacted] he could not let her leave until he confirms that she has a license. Ofc. Fragoso conducted a records check through dispatch and advised her it was out of New Mexico. Dispatch advised that [redacted] showed not wants or warrants and asked Ofc. Fragoso if he had an OLN. Ofc. Fragoso advised Dispatch she did not have her license and he was having trouble locating her.

Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] what part of New Mexico she was from and Duran said from the city. Ofc. Fragoso asked which one and she said New Mexico. Ofc. Fragoso mentioned two New Mexico cities and [redacted] responded with, "city". Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] which one and she again said the city. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] there was many cities. Ofc. Fragoso provided an example to [redacted] of the [redacted]rent cities in AZ. [redacted] again said from New Mexico and the [redacted]. [redacted] then said she is not legally form there. [redacted] said she was from these areas of Douglas. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] what city she resided at in New Mexico. [redacted] said she stayed there for about a week and went to go purchase a vehicle then came back.

Ofc. Fragoso questioned had question [redacted] about what city she resided at in New Mexico, in order to contact there Police Department and try to find a record on her and her license. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if she had gone to MVD and asked for a driver's license. During this time Dispatch advised that there was a record out of AZ for Duran. Dispatch advised it showed out of Willcox, which indicated no license or ID. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] what she did when she went to go get her license. [redacted] said she turned over vehicle paper work, took an exam, and in three days she received approval in order to get her license. [redacted] said she then received her license.

Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] what address she used and she said it was her friend's. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if she was issued her license and she said yes, she did her exam, and everything was good. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] what her social security number was and she said [redacted]. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] who this vehicle belonged to and she said it was her friend's. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if it was the friend who resided in New Mexico. [redacted] uttered a noised as to indicate yes. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] that the registration showed an address out of Douglas. [redacted] said her frie[redacted]d a New Mexico address. [redacted] said she had just purchased the vehicle and she hasn't had it for long.

Ofc. Fragoso contacted New Mexico State Police via work issued cell phone, in order to located a driver's license record for [redacted] Ofc. Fragoso had the intention of contacting the City in which [redacted] allegedly resided at, however she was not able to provide a city. Ofc. F[redacted]o advised State Police Dispatch of the incident and requested assistance with a records check of [redacted] Ofc. Fragoso advised NM dispatch that he had a full name, DOB, and social that [redacted] had provided. Dispatch asked Ofc. Fragoso for the social, which Ofc. Fragoso provided ([redacted]). While completing this report and reviewing BWC, Ofc. Fragoso no[redacted]he had provided the incorrect social while speaking to NM Dispatch.

Dispatch asked Ofc. Fragoso for the name and DOB, which Ofc. Fragoso provided. Dispatch advised of having found the record that showed the Wilcox AZ. Dispatch advised that usually when they do that on there side it means that the license was surrendered and have one out of another state. Dispatch advised of not having found a New Mexico record, she might have surrendered her license and got one out of another state. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] that he spoke to New Mexico Police and they did not locate a record of her license. [redacted] asked why there was no record. Ofc. Fragoso uttered a noise to [redacted] as to indicate that he did not know. Ofc. Fragoso contacted Eric Edwards w[redacted] one of the Douglas Police Department Legal advisors, in order to check of there was enough to detain [redacted] and take her to the Douglas Port of Entry to have her ID'd.

Ofc. Fragoso had [redacted] enter his vehicle and transported her to the Douglas Port of Entry in order to have her ID's through finger prints. Prior to transport, [redacted] advised Ofc. Fragoso that [redacted] had just gotten out the house of hope and she does not explain things well. [redacted] said the consulate was getting her papers. [redacted] said she did not know why [redacted] was test driving the car. [redacted] said that she had a license. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if [redacted] had a license and she said she believed she did. [redacted] said [redacted] has told her that she did have one. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] state [redacted] was from. [redacted] said [redacted] was from Mexico but did not know from where. Ofc. Fragoso proceeded to make contact with [redacted] and advised her she was being detained and he needed to verify all the information. Ofc. Fragoso transported [redacted] to the Douglas Port of Entry. On arrival to the Port of Entry, [redacted] asked Ofc. Fragoso if she could say her real name.

Inside the Port of Entry Office, Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] what her name was and she said [redacted]. Ofc. Fragoso provided [redacted] with pen and paper for her to write her name. Ofc. Fragoso wrote [redacted] in the same paper and showed it to [redacted] so she could check the spelling. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if it was like th[redacted] reference the spelling) and she uttered a noise as to [redacted]cate yes. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] what her real date of birth was. [redacted] asked why Ofc. Fragoso wanted her DOB. [redacted] advised Ofc. Fragoso just to put the name. Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] if she was going to provide it (DOB) and she refused. Ofc. Fragoso advised [redacted] she was under arrest and she said it was okay.

CBP Officer Olmos assisted Ofc. Fragoso with trying to ID [redacted] Ofc. Fragoso asked [redacted] again for her DOB and she refused to provide it. Ofc. Fragoso asked
