1 On January 12, 2015, Plaintiffs notified the Court that, with their agreement, Lisa
2 Duran had withdrawn from the Community Advisory Board. Doc. 847. Due to
3 professional time commitments, Carlos Santos has now also withdrawn from the
4 Community Advisory Board, again with Plaintiffs' agreement. Pursuant to the Amended
5 Supplemental Permanent Injunction/Judgment Order, Doc. 670, Plaintiffs select
6 Francisca Porchas Coronado and Viridiana Hernandez to replace Ms. Duran and Mr.
7 Santos on the Community Advisory Board. Information about each is attached as Exhibit
8 A.

9 Respectfully submitted this 4th day of March, 2015.

EXHIBIT A

Francisca Porchas Coronado is the Organizing Director of Puente Human Rights Movement in Phoenix. She was born in Mexico and migrated to the U.S. over 25 years ago. Her work focuses on member recruitment, leadership development, and campaign development at the intersection of race, class, immigration, and criminalization. She previously spent 10 years as the Lead Organizer at the Labor/Community Strategy Center in Los Angeles, where she worked on issues of civil rights and climate and environmental justice, including leading the Billions for Buses Campaign. She is also a co-founder of Dignity and Power Now in Los Angeles, the grassroots organization that recently won the breakthrough policy for a Civilian Review Board for the Custody Division of the L.A. County Sheriff's Department.

Viridiana Hernandez is a graduate of Grand Canyon University with a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education. Currently, she is the Public Policy Director at the Center for Neighborhood Leadership in Phoenix, where she began her career as a community organizer 5 years ago. She has strong ties to the community in Phoenix. She is part of the City of Phoenix Youth Council, leads community involvement in Maryvale Planning and most recently was selected to be part of the City of Phoenix Women's Commission. She is bilingual in Spanish.
