NOTICE OF EMERGENCY / EXTREME NEGLECT

Ryan, et al.

David K. Duncan

I, class plaintiff, [REDACTED], respectfully notify the Court that the gangrenous toe of [REDACTED] fell off his foot on Tuesday, 1/17/18. This likely implicates worsening infection. Mr. [REDACTED] risks losing his foot or worse as he has still not been transported to the Emergency Room or seen a specialist. Please order Mr. Ryan to have Mr. [REDACTED] transported to the Emergency Room immediately. Mr. [REDACTED] has the toe as evidence. A second toe needs to be removed immediately.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: 1/18/18

Issue: Inmate [REDACTED] medical Emergency

Until I can meet with [REDACTED] and complete an informal grievance I am sending you this note for documentation purposes.

Upon his return from the hospital, Mr. [REDACTED] still had gangrene in his feet, likely the result of leg restraints restricting his already poor circulation in his feet. According to Mr. [REDACTED] medical discontinued his antibiotics for his feet. Reportedly, they <sup>are</sup> in process of referring him for the already neglected surgery. As you saw today and took pictures of the toe that had fallen off and his infected foot, this is an emergency that requires vigorous intervention. Hopefully, he will be transported immediately to the ER. The Federal Judge Duncan, the ACLU et al and the Attorney General are already aware of this situation in general terms. Please assist in any ways possible.

Respectfully yours,

[REDACTED]
